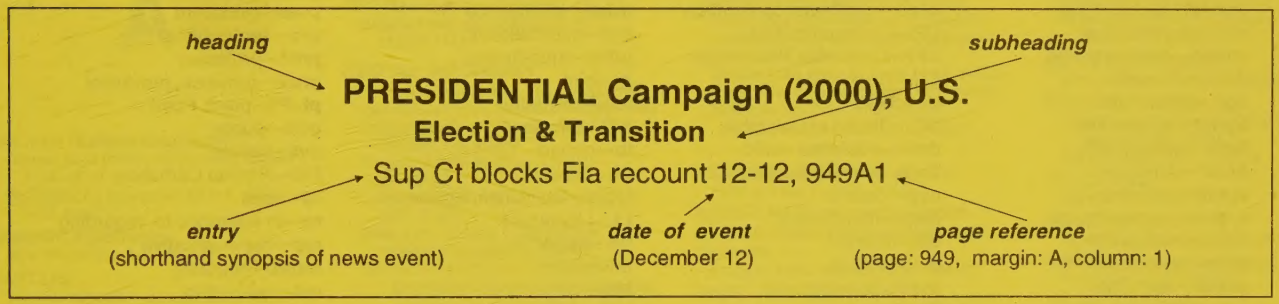
FACTS ON FILE® World News Digest Cumulative Index

The Index is the key to locating all subjects, people, companies, organizations and countries in the FACTS ON FILE News Digest articles. The Index is also useful as an independent reference tool for the location of dates of events, full names and titles of individuals and associations.

How to Use

Every subject, personal name, company, organization, geographic area and topic in the news is listed as a heading followed by related entries. The Index headings are arranged alphabetically according to the letter-by-letter system (for example, NEWS, NEW York). Topical subheadings divide long lists of entries under headings.

Every entry in the Index is a shorthand synopsis of a news item followed by the date and the page reference. The date shows the month and day in numerical form (for example, 12-12 means December 12). The page reference shows the page number, the margin letter parallel to the news item and the column in which the item appears on the page. Entries in the Index are usually listed in chronological order.



Tips for easy searching: Don't give up if you don't find what you are looking for under the first heading you try; try other headings related to the story. Virtually every news story that was widely reported in the national press is in Facts On File. The Index is studded with cross-references showing where additional or related information can be found. It is often helpful to search first for a specific name that you know is part of a story, since broader headings accumulate many entries.

Cross-references: The heading and subheading cross-references direct the user to other headings and/or subheadings. The word "See" in the cross-reference means to turn directly to the heading or subheading mentioned. The words "See also" indicate that all entries below should be checked as well as those listed under the other related heading or subheading.

Abbreviations: Abbreviations used in Index entries are listed on the reverse side.

Year in Review: Top News Stories of 2000

Texas Gov. George W. Bush Defeats Vice President Al Gore in Prolonged U.S. Presidential Race

Texas Gov. George W. Bush (R) Dec. 13 was declared the 43rd U.S. president five weeks after the Nov. 7 election, which had resulted in a legal dispute between Bush and Democratic opponent Vice President Al Gore over Florida's crucial 25 electoral votes. That battle ended when the Supreme Court Dec. 12 rejected Gore's request for further ballot recounts in Florida. Bush ultimately garnered 271 electoral votes to Gore's 266, but Gore won 539,897 more of the 105,380,929 ballots cast in the popular vote. [See 2000, pp. 983B1, 949A1, 837A1]

Bush had run on a platform of tax cuts, military modernization and market-based reforms of Medicare and Social Security, while Gore had advocated debt reduction and Medicare prescription drug coverage. Gore had also touted his experience in government and the economic boom under the Clinton administration, but Bush had endeavored to associate him with President Clinton's impeachment and Democratic fund-raising scandals. [See 2000, pp. 583A1, 535A1]

Gore's running mate, Sen. Joseph Lieberman (D, Conn.), was the first Jew on a major party's presidential ticket. Bush's running mate, Richard Cheney, was a former secretary of defense. [See 2000, pp. 557A1, 517A1]

Some Democrats blamed Green Party candidate Ralph Nader, who won 2% of the vote, for drawing votes from Gore in key states.

Other Election Results

Congressional elections Nov. 7 left Republicans with a 221–211 majority in the House, while splitting the Senate 50–50. Republicans would still control the Senate because Cheney would cast tiebreaking votes. First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton was elected to the Senate from New York State. [See 2000, pp. 989C3, 933D2, 843C1, D3]

EASY USE INDEX

Every entry in this Index is a shorthand synopsis of a news item.

The entry also gives the date of the event (for example, 9-16—meaning September 16) and the precise location on the page where the fact can be found (for example, 745A2—meaning page 745, margin letter A, column 2).

See and See also cross-references under many headings and subheadings indicate where additional information can be found. Fuller instructions on index use can be found on the binder tabs.

Tips for easy searching: Don't give up if you don't find what you are looking for under the first heading you try; try again under other headings related to the story. Virtually every news story that was widely reported in the press is in Facts On File. The Index is studded with cross-references showing where additional or related information can be found. It is often helpful to search first for a specific name that you know is part of the story, since broader headings accumulate many entries.
